

Whispers in the night, a tooth's delight,
You've lost your first, oh what a sight!
The Tooth Fairy's here to make it right,
With magic sparkles and stars so bright.

Under your pillow, a surprise awaits,
A little gift for you, no need to debate.
But before you sleep, don't hesitate,
Brush your teeth, it's never too late!

Your smile's precious, like a jewel so rare,
So keep it shining with love and care.
With every tooth you lose, I'll be there,
Spreading joy and magic in the air!

Dream sweet dreams, little one, tonight,
With love from the Tooth Fairy, taking flight!
